

Tsar Nicholas IV

Tsar of Russia 1-Nov-1894 to 15-Mar-1917

AKA Nikolai Alexandrovich Romanov

Born: 18-May-1868

Birthplace: Pushkin, Russia

Died: 17-Jul-1918

Location of death: Yekaterinburg, Russia

Cause of death: Execution

Remains: Buried, Petropavlovskaya Krepost, St. Petersburg, Russia

Gender: Male

Religion: Russian Orthodox

Race or Ethnicity: White

Sexual orientation: Straight

Occupation: Royalty

Nationality: Russia

Executive summary: Last of the Russian Tsars

Military service: Russian Army

Father: Tsar Alexander III

Mother: Marie Feodorovna

Wife: Princess Alix of Hesse and by Rhine (m. 26-Nov-1894, d. 17-Jul-1918)

Daughter: Olga (b. 1895, d. 17-Jul-1918)

Daughter: Tatiana (b. 1897, d. 17-Jul-1918)

Daughter: Maria (b. 1899, d. 17-Jul-1918)

Daughter: Anastasia (b. 1901, d. 17-Jul-1918)

Son: Alexei (b. 12-Aug-1904, d. 17-Jul-1918, hemophiliac)

Mistress: Mathilde Kschessinska (dancer)

Tsar of Russia 1-Nov-1894 to 15-Mar-1917

Assassination Attempt train bombing

Assassination Attempt Japan

Abdication 15-Mar-1917

House Arrest Yekaterinburg, Russia Aug-1917

Shot: Firing Squad 17-Jul-1918

Exhumed

Canonization (by the Russian Orthodox church) 20-Aug-2000